Joshua

Teacher: Dave Bahn Room #126

"Joshua" means "Jehovah saves," or "the Lord is salvation," and corresponds to the New Testament name "Jesus." In the Book of Joshua we will see that Joshua yields his will to God's will; God prepares Joshua; God positions Joshua; God protects Joshua; God enables Joshua; God leads Joshua; God blesses Joshua.

In this study we will see how God led Joshua each step of the way, and how God will also lead each of us as we yield our will to His and follow Him.

SINGLES AND FRIENDS

When People Are Big and God Is Small

Teacher: Tom Bankert Room #108

We will continue the study When People Are Big and God Is Small, by Edward T. Welch. We will unpack Part 2, "Overcoming Fear of Others." This will give us an up-close-and-personal insight as to knowing and growing in the fear of the Lord, how one can apply these truths to their own lives, and be able to tangibly demonstrate a biblical love toward their enemies, neighbors, and brothers and sisters in Christ.

Classes and topics may change quarterly.

LADIES' CONNECTION

Jesus: The Beginning and the End

Teacher: Allison Mackey Room #112

Join us in the Ladies' Connection Sunday School class as we dive into the depths of Christology: the theological study of the person and work of Jesus Christ, focusing on His nature, identity and role in salvation. Our goal is to know Him better and experience Him in our lives, realizing the power He has for us to live fully in Him.

Parents' Connection

Teachers: Pastor Jason White Room #110
and Scott Gunther

Our goal is to connect parents with other parents as we study the Bible together. We will be studying the same passage that your children will be learning about in Sunday School. Lord willing this will equip you to guide your children as they grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. We desire to grow personally through an increasing understanding of God's word and the mutual encouragement of fellow believers.

Consider

Teacher: Steve Nace Room #118

The word consider is used 67 times in God's Word, and each time we are told to consider, we are asked to think carefully about something before making a decision. As we consider the events that occurred during the last week of Jesus' earthly life, we will be asked to consider why He did what He did, the timing of what He did, when He did it, the different places where He did what He did, and the result of what He did by dying on the cross.

Connecting Couples

Teachers: Pastor Rob Greene Room #107
and Cindy Greene

What Did You Expect?: Redeeming the Realities of Marriage, by Paul David Tripp
Somehow, some way, every marriage becomes a struggle. Everyone's marriage morphs into something they didn't intend it to be. At some point, you need something sturdier than romance. You need something deeper than shared interests and mutual attraction. You need changed expectations, you need radical commitments, and, most importantly, you need grace.

Bible Stories for Adults

Teacher: Stuart Mason Room #128

This class is for you if: you heard Bible stories as a child and suspected that you weren't getting the whole story; you didn't hear Bible stories as a child and suspect that you could get more out of your devotions; or, you like sharing how these accounts of people dealing with God and their culture have been a blessing. We will start with the peculiar stories of Elijah and Elisha, God's men in a time of unbelief and corrupt government.

The Journeymen

Teacher: Mike Robinson Room #120

The book of Exodus reveals the challenging journey and resettlement that God had the Israelites experience. In a similar sense, the Christian is on a demanding journey that will eventually lead to a "resettlement" in Heaven. Often the Christian, like the Israelites, is prone to frantically complain, yet God marvelously supplies the grace to persevere. Please, join me for a study journey within this second book of the Bible!
